

WASHINGTON 2009

CST 2080389-40

Dear Parents:

SEPTEMBER 2008

MCM

Once again we will be offering an extraordinary educational experience to interested eighth grade students through our annual spring tour of Washington, D. C., Williamsburg, Mount Vernon, Monticello and Gettysburg. As in the past, the tour, a non-school activity, will be custom designed to ensure participants a rich learning experience as well as an exciting trip. Students will depart Friday evening, April 10th and return Thursday, April 16th. A SPECIAL INFORMATION MEETING WILL BE HELD ON THURSDAY, OCTOBER 2nd, AT 7:30 P.M. IN THE MEDEA CREEK M.S. LIBRARY.

As teachers, we have seen the value of educational tour programs which stress structured learning experiences through the excitement of travel. Over the past thirty-one years we have been able to refine and improve our trip. The result is a stimulating educational program, tailor-made for our students, designed much like a lesson plan using the nation's Capital and historic sites as our classroom.

Planned sites in Washington include: the Washington Monument, the Jefferson, Lincoln & Roosevelt Memorials, the war memorials to WWII, Korea and Vietnam, the Smithsonian Institute, the Holocaust museum, the Newseum, and much more. Students will also visit the Capitol and, schedule permitting, meet with their elected representatives.

In addition to all this, students will spend an entire day in historic Williamsburg and Jamestown. Through privately escorted tours and evening programs, students are literally able to "walk back into history." We will also visit the battlefield at Gettysburg, and tour Jefferson's estate at Monticello, and Washington's estate at Mt. Vernon.

Students will depart from Los Angeles aboard a regularly scheduled airline. Once in Washington, we will enjoy deluxe, restroom-equipped, recliner buses with experienced drivers. Students will be chaperoned throughout the trip with a 1:15 adult to student ratio. Nights will be spent in a deluxe accommodation such as a Sheraton, Hyatt, Marriott or comparable hotel with interior hallways. Rooms are well appointed with two large beds, cable TV, etc. Students will be allowed to select their own roommates; four students are assigned to each room.

All meals are provided during the trip. Breakfasts and dinners will usually be buffet style, affording a variety of entrees. Most lunches are from food courts or fast food restaurants where students may select whatever they wish.

The complete cost of the tour is $1,564 per person*. This includes: airfare, airport transfers, lodging, sightseeing, all meals, all admissions, supervision, guide fees, tips, and the performance at the Kennedy Center. As in the past, we will offer the Guaranteed Price Option, which insures against price increases, excluding any fuel, luggage, or airport surcharges added by transportation providers prior to departure.

From past experience we know that the trip will provide students with a learning experience and friendships that will last a lifetime. The attached registration form, instructions, and sample itinerary on the back of this page should answer most questions. If you have any additional questions, please visit our website: www.traveled2dc.com, or contact us at home in the evenings: Jim Benton at (310) 866-3687 or Tom Johnsen at (805) 499-1569 or Don Zimring at (818) 991-9059. Since this is not a school-sponsored program, PLEASE DO NOT CALL THE SCHOOL OR THE DISTRICT OFFICE.

We look forward to seeing you!

Sincerely,

Jim Benton

Tom Johnsen

Student Behavior Expectations

The Washington Trip provides a once in a lifetime learning experience for students. The trip is planned to provide an exciting and fun-filled week that will bring alive many of the classroom and textbook experiences students have had. The chaperons take pride in the program they offer and enjoy the trip as much as the students. The success, however, is based not only on a carefully planned itinerary, but on a positive attitude toward learning and a high level of commitment from the students as well. To this end, students must adhere to a higher standard of discipline and self-control than is needed in a normal school routine. Students who cannot meet these standards may be sent home early at their parents' expense with no refund of any monies paid. We don't want that to happen. The following is a general guide to the behavior expectations we have for the students.

Students are expected to demonstrate respect and courtesy to everyone they meet during the trip. The maintenance of harmonious working relationships, particularly with guides and others in authority positions, is essential for our continued success. This is fundamental for ALL participants.

Violation of any laws, particularly possession of drugs, alcohol, tobacco or other harmful items, will result in immediate return home at the parents' expense with no refund and/or detention by local authorities.

IDENTIFICATION – Students must carry a picture I. D. at all times, as it will be required at the airport, at several sites and for most meals.

ON THE AIRCRAFT – Flying is exciting regardless of age. However, having a 100+ students on a single aircraft requires discipline and cooperation. Students may not roam the plane or “hang out” in the aisles. Using the restroom should be the only reason for leaving one's seat. We encourage students to rest or even sleep. Others on the flight will be trying to do so, so students' behavior needs to be respectful of that. Do not use the flight attendant call button unless there is an emergency. When the aircraft lands, students must remain in their seats until the chaperons have given directions for debarkation.

ON THE ROAD – Students will spend a good deal of time on the buses, which are luxury recliner coaches with restrooms. No eating, drinking or gum chewing is permitted on the bus. Music devices are allowed, provided they do not disturb others and that they are put away whenever a chaperon or driver is speaking on the public address system. Our drivers/guides have a wealth of information to provide, but will not do so, if you appear bored or disinterested.

VISITING SITES – Students will be surrounded by their nation's history and culture. While it will be exciting, we must act with the respect these sites deserve. These historic and national treasures hold memories and values that are important to many people. It is unacceptable to detract from that atmosphere by running, climbing, yelling or chewing gum. When a guide is talking at a site, students must be attentive and not talk or “play around.”

HOTELS – Students will be expected to strictly adhere to hotel behavior standards and curfew rules. Many other patrons use the facility; their right to not be disturbed must be respected. Students are not permitted to “hang out” in the lobby, hallways or in the rooms of other students.

ATTIRE – The normal school dress code will be in effect on the trip. “Gang” style clothing or accessories are not permitted. Students will be expected to dress appropriately for their evening at the theatre. A clothing list is available on our website and will appear on the back of trip Talk #1 in the Spring.

FAILURE TO ADHERE TO THE ABOVE RULES MAY RESULT IN THE STUDENT BEING SENT HOME EARLY AT THE PARENTS' EXPENSE WITH NO REFUND PROVIDED.
